DEFENDANT: WILLIAM POLANCO
CASE NUMBER: 1:18CR00434-007 (JGK)

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. ### ADDITIONAL SUPERVISED RELEASE TERMS

- The defendant shall participate in vocational training and take college-level courses, as directed by the Probation Department.
- If the Probation Department determines, based on the defendant's criminal record, personal history or characteristics that the defendant poses a risk to another person, including an organization, the Probation Department, with the prior approval of the Court, may require the defendant to notify the person about the risk and the defendant must comply with that instruction. The probation Department may contact the person and confirm that the defendant has notified the person about the risk.
- The defendant shall pay restitution in the amount of $1,308,976.09 to the Internal Revenue Service. Restitution is payable at the rate of 10% of the defendant's gross monthly income, beginning 30 days after the release from imprisonment. Restitution is joint and several with Albanelly Ramirez, up to the total amount, and joint and several with Lenin Guzman Hidalgo up to $177,787.90 and Ana Vianely Molina up to $177,787.90. (If both defts are convicted). No restitution is payable after the amount of restitution is fully paid.
- The defendant shall forfeit $1,308,976.09 to the Government.
- Nor interest shall accrue on either restitution or forfeiture, due to the defendant's inability to pay.
